

Foundations of Ethics and Religion

Allocated Hours for this Unit :2 Planned Hours: 2

S.No	Topic Name	Planned Hours
1	Introduction to Ethics and Religion	1
2	Tensions, Harmonies, and Contemporary Issues	1

Interfaith Dialogue and Religious Pluralism

Allocated Hours for this Unit :2 Planned Hours: 2

S.No	Topic Name	Planned Hours
1	Foundations of Interfaith Dialogue	1
2	Challenges and Real-Life Applications	1

Developing Critical Thinking and Moral Reasoning

Allocated Hours for this Unit :3 Planned Hours: 3

S.No	Topic Name	Planned Hours
1	Introduction to Critical Thinking in Ethics	1
2	Moral Reasoning – Principles and Frameworks	1
3	Analysing and Discussing Ethical Dilemmas	1

Theological Foundations of Ethics

Allocated Hours for this Unit :3 Planned Hours: 3

S.No	Topic Name	Planned Hours
1	Sacred Scriptures as Sources of Moral Wisdom	1
2	Comparative Religious Moral Theories	1
3	Christian Moral Theology and the Concept of Sin	1

Course Description

Key Takeaways • Ethics and religion are deeply connected but not identical. • Religion can guide, inspire, and challenge ethical thinking. • Secular ethics offers alternative but complementary perspectives. • A pluralistic society benefits from understanding both viewpoints.